About The UC Theatre

The UC Theatre Taube Family Music Hall is a multi-tiered, all-ages 1,350 capacity live music venue with a state-of-the-art Meyer Leopard sound system, presenting a diverse range of local, national and international artists and bands including indie, alternative, jazz, R&B, electronica, hip-hop, EDM, world, pop, comedy and more.

The UC Theatre is operated by the Berkeley Music Group (BMG), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our Concert Career Pathways (CCP) education program teaches young people ages 17 to 25 from historically marginalized communities the technical, creative and business aspects of concert and event promotion. Through hands-on workshops and paid internships we train the next generation of music industry professionals.

BMG is also dedicated to ensuring that The UC Theatre strengthens the Bay Area's vibrant fabric of nonprofit arts and service organizations. We are building a collaborative network of community partnerships with existing education, performing arts, health and youth development nonprofits to assist them with their fundraising and outreach through events at The UC Theatre.

Equal Opportunity and Diversity

The UC Theatre is committed to equity in its support and advocacy, and seeks to create and encourage opportunities for people of color, women, non-binary, LGBTQ+, veterans, and people with disabilities. The UC Theatre is committed to creating and upholding a safe space for its staff and customers where respectful conversations around diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility can continue to happen. The UC Theatre makes an ongoing commitment to prioritize DEI initiatives and learn more about best practices and approaches to DEI in the live performance industry, and to provide resources and professional development opportunities to support its members in doing the same for their individual businesses.
